FOREWORD

What has distinguished these past three years from all the other years of our life? There is no formal, precise definition that will communicate the richness of these years or of this experience. We must review them in all their complexity to arrive at an answer.

The purpose of this book is to retain, in a tangible form, memories of experiences and friendships acquired throughout the years. We, as the Senior Class, sincerely hope that all who follow us will find their years at Dunbar High as happy and as successful as ours have been. If we have accomplished this purpose then our 1961 Bulldog will have been a success.

MRS. MARGARET GLASS

To you, Mrs. Glass, we, the Senior Class of 1961 dedicate this annual. As our sponsor, you have helped us with our projects, including the Junior-Senior Prom, the football banquets, the commencement, and many, many others. As our English teacher, you have taught us what will be of the greatest value in the future in the most interesting ways imaginable. As our friend, you have helped us grow and gain confidence. Your tasks have not always been the easiest, but they have been filled with love for your students. You have always led us in the ways of truth, and we are grateful. In this small way we would like to say, "Thank You."

DEDICATION

IN MEMORIAM

The Class of 1961 gratefully acknowledges the long years of service of their former principal, George M. Speicher. We will long remember him as a man who showed us how much he cared about us through his excellent guidance.

INTRODUCTION

As our years at Dunbar High draw to a close, we, the class of 1961, find ourselves constantly recalling past incidents and trying to fill each fleeting moment with many memorable happenings. We are saddened with each passing event as we realize we will never again be a part of the Majorette Festival, the South Charleston Game, the Junior-Senior Prom, or even the happy confusion in the halls between classes.

Realizing the importance of these past years and desiring to have a permanent record of our days within these halls, we have compiled this annual, enclosing in it our triumphs and defeats, our joys and sadness.

It is now our desire that this book may be--to every Senior who reads it years from now--a living memory of

"THOSE
HOURS"

CLASS HISTORY

We, the Senior Class of 1961, must do everything possible to remember these past three years at Dunbar High School. Although we shall go on to other towns, other activities, or other schools, we pause first to record here the events of our high school days. This history is our diary, our written memory.

At the beginning of our first year at Dunbar High, we viewed things as typical Sophomores, from the bottom up. In a class meeting we elected Bob Bianchi our President and Rejohna Gibson Carter our Vice President. Soon after settling into the routine of the classes in new surroundings, we were pulled into the whirl of football. During this season, three girls from our class, Jeanee Clayton, Sue Brogan, and Billie Jo Shiltz, were chosen as cheerleaders. Later we enjoyed the basketball games, shared the excitement of winning the State Track Championship, and suffered through the final tests. In the spring, Mary Spaniol and Christine Langfitt received the Sophomore medals for scholarship, and Bob Bianchi was eleced Vice President of the Student Council. We sadly watched one third of our school, those worldly Seniors, leave and waited for the fall and our new positions as Juniors.

The second year came and we moved about the familiar halls with the assurance of being right in the middle, one year ahead of the nervous frightened Sophomores and one year behind the serious responsible Seniors. We experienced once more the thrill of sports, and we worked to perform the special duties given us as the Junior Class. The Junior-Senior Prom, with the theme, "April In Paris," was prepared by a committee headed by our class officers, Tom Frazier, President and Rejohna Gibson Carter, Vice President. The fun and beauty of that night will long remain a precious memory for many of us. During our Junior year, Marna Sampson Pauley won second place in the Spelling Bee, Christine Langfitt was elected Student Council President, and a baseball team was organized. Receiving, with joy or with sorrow, the report cards for the second semester, we left the building for a summer's rest before our last, most important year.

We came that first day with many doubts, because we knew that now we were the Seniors, the leaders. This was a year of decision and indecision, of independence and dependence, and of study and play. Headed by our President, Jim Kay and our Vice President, Bob Watters, we were eager with ideas and energy to contribute to the school. The activities in which we took part for the last time were given our whole-hearted attention. Miss Bulldog, Linda Barnett, and her attendants, Sharon Goldman and Wanda Crouch, represented us at the South Charleston game, the Thespians presented plays on the stage with a new curtain, our band with Jim Pearson as drum major and Carrie Leighty as head majorette, performed at the Majorette Festival, and we Seniors set examples in club meetings, in classrooms, in assembly, and in the halls. The football and basketball games, the track meets, the Christmas assembly, and the band concert were seen again and soon the year drew to a close.

As we leave Dunbar High School, we realize that the days here have been full and rich with humor, friendliness, and experience. We are deeply grateful to our teachers, families, and friends for these happy hours.

I've got a million of them.

C. SAMS
What did he say mom?

S. SELBE
Anyone for a game of toss?

J. SETTLE
Please Mr. Custer.

C. SHAFFER
Bring that food on.

L. SHARP
Who is that over there?

J. SIMMONS
I'm not telling you!

B. J. SHILTZ
Somebody help me.

R. SKIDMORE
Keep smiling I always say.

S. SMITH
Have we met before?

K. SOULSBY
Who said all men are bad?

M. SPANIOL
Can'tthis wait till after I eat?

S. STALNAKER
Man, this is luxury.

I. STARCHER
How do you do there, pal?

C. STEELE
Come on to my house.

M. J. STEPHENS
Where am I?

J. STIDD
Wanna fight?

J. STOVER
Look at that cute boy!

J. TUCKER
That's a pretty long step down.

J. TUCKER
Maybe I'm not a big failure.

Go away Mr.Dogcatcher.

B. TAYLOR
Lost in the wilds.

J. TINSLEY
Just call me toughie.

A. THOMPSON
Just call me "Liz."

K. UNDERWOOD
Man, this easy life is all right with me.

M. WALKER
And the champ leads with a left.

J. REED
Where did you get that snazzy convertible?

J. WHITE
Oh my, how revolting.

E. WILSON
Who's afraid?

B. WIMMER
"I like to eat grass, don't you?"

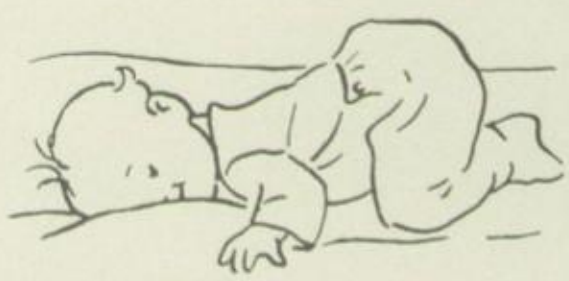
W. WOOD
When I'm bad, I'm horrid.

P. WILLIAMS
Ain't I cute?

H. WURFEL
Well of all the . . .

M. YOUNG
Come and see my petunias.

C. ZIMMERMAN
Have you seen it? Lady!



THE END

"THOSE HAPPY HOURS"

One day I wandered back
To the halls of Dunbar High
Now so empty--yet so full
Of memories of days gone by.

I recalled how we had rushed
To get from class to class,
But always taking time to talk
To a friend who happened to pass.

I heard once again the laughter
Ringing in those halls so dear.
I saw again the classmates
Who had shared three wonderful years.

And here comes one of my teachers
From whom I've learned so much
About how to read, write, and work
And live with others and such.

I saw again the captain
Of the football team so bold,
Who led our boys in fighting
For the school they wished to uphold.

And now I enter the gym
Whose walls resound the shouts
Of the boys who have played there--
Their hopes, their joys, their doubts.

But I must leave those happy hours
And the memories of the past
To step forward to a world unknown
And new and different paths.

On a recent trip to the planet Venus, I realized that not only do we live in a small world but also in a small universe. I met many people I knew and saw many familiar faces from the class of sixty-one. Of course I traveled by space ship, and it just happened to be one of a fleet owned by ROY HICKMAN and JOYCE PIERCE. The ship was piloted by BOB WATTERS, an XU2 pilot in the United States, and his co-pilot, BILL SPENCER, who were substituting for the regular pilot, MIKE MITCHELL, and his co-pilot, BOB SMITH. Sitting behind me was DELORES CASTO, beautiful starlet from Hollywood, arguing with her agents, JOE CARTER and JANICE CASTO, about top billing on a show with PENNY PITZER and GLORIA MUSSER who were also performers. MARSEENIA WALKER, now a successful business woman on Earth, sat next to me complaining about her ulcers and declaring her intention to visit CARRIE LEIGHTY'S Venitian Health Salon to recuperate. Health food experts ROBERTA PITMAN and KENNY UNDERWOOD recommended this treatment.

The pert little stewardesses, JUDY TUCKER, CAROLYN STEEL, ALICE DIXON and JOAN STIDD, busied themselves trying to make the passengers comfortable while MOZELLE DAVIS, one of the ten most famous female barbers in the world, sat clipping her mink stole into a poodle cut.

Finally the ship neared the landing platform and we all fastened our safety belts in preparation for the landing. As the gigantic doors of the space craft opened and I descended the steps, I caught sight of the Honorable CHRISTINE LANGFITT, mayor of the fair city of Psitmah with her secretary, ANN MAUS, and her body guards, JUDY AUER, ANN TAYLOR, CHRIS SAMS, and MARY YOUNG. They were at the space port to meet Senators JOSEPH WILLIAMS, JOHN BECKNER, JOHN MEEKS, and LARRY MILLS, who were campaigning for the coming election.

Having passed customs, I hailed a taxi driven by TED NICHOLS and started downtown to find a hotel room. Luckily, I found one at the Evans-Arms, a plush little place owned by MERLENE EVANS and GEORGE ARMSTRONG. When I entered the lobby, I saw that ANN THOMPSON and HAZEL McNEELY had materialized their life's dream--their own detective agency, Venitian Eye. Also with offices in the building was ANGELA GALLION, a prominent psychiatric social worker, who seemed to be doing a lucrative business.

After the desk clerk, WANDA WOOD, had handed me the registry and I had signed in, I went to the elevator to go to my twenty-ninth floor room. To my surprise I met JEANIE NICHOLS, CAROLYN RHODES, BETTY TOLLIVER, LINDA RILEY and WANDA CROUCH, who were on their way to the hotel's Skyline Room, designed by JEANINE PICKENS and JUDY SIMMONS. The convention of the Universal Trampoline Testers and Jumpers Association whose president was JAMES DUFFIELD, was in session and they were on their way to join the fun.

PROPHECY

The next morning on my way to breakfast at DANNY NEAL and EDNA HUNTER'S Kozy Kitchen Koffee Kounter, I stopped at LINDA O'DANIEL and MARY SPANIOL'S newsstand for a morning paper. Headlines on the front page were "KAREN GARRETT, Nuclear Physicist Makes New Discovery." Reading on I learned that JOE GORHAM, JAMES HENSLEY, EMMETT DRENNAN, JERRY RAY, and JOHN BOWEN, stock holders in Bone and Body Booster Inc., had had a terrible crash and medical doctor THEESTER COLEMAN had them all as good as new in no time. PATTY HAYES, JUDY WHITE, BRENDA COVERT, and PEGGY STANLEY had invented a tooth brush with food particles for people who cannot eat between brushings. It contained columns by such noted writers as LOIS MOORE, CATHERINE McGREW, LINDA MULLENS, and DONNA JACKSON. A big picture of HAMILTON LIPSCOMB who was chosen Mr. American on Earth shared the sports page with All-American football players, MIKE SIMS, CALVIN BURCHETT, FRANK DUNCAN, JIM KAY, RONNIE BUSH, and CHARLES BEASLEY. ISAIAH HUNTER in his column told of the coming light-weight title fight between JOE LAUGHERY and BOB LEWIS. Glancing at the society page and BRENDA HART and SHARON STALNAKER'S gossip column, I noticed that gay Hollywood bachelors JIMMY BERKELY, JERRY REED, CHARLES CRUTCHFIELD, and JOHN CARR were secret admirers of starlets, SHIRLEY FULLER, LINDA FISH, SANDRA DEAN and SHIELA CARTER and getting no where fast; that NANCY BENNETT and GLORIA BOWLING, models at CAROLYN WILLIS' exclusive dress shop were on the brink of losing their jobs to their rivals, NANCY RIFFEE and CAROLYN SHAFFER; and that socialites, DIANE CARNEY and BRENDA PERRY were having a party to celebrate the opening of their new club.

Later that evening walking downtown I passed RAY CUNNINGHAM'S commercial art studio where I saw pictures of his models JUDY WESTFALL, LINDA BARNETT, SUSIE BESS and DELORES BAXTER. Next door, Joe's Pool Room owned by MYRNA MEANS advertised for a pool stick polisher.

When I arrived at the gala club opening, I was met at the door by the club's bouncers, BONITA WIMMER, INGRID STARCHER, MILLIE RUCKER, and NANCY JIVIDEN. The head waiter, JAMES HAMILTON showed me to a table where I could see all over the room. I saw PHILLIP and C. J. MORRIS of Morris and Morris Weed Killers Inc., and SHARON GOLDMAN, SUE McGRANER, MARY JEAN STEPHENS, and SUE BROGAN who were competing for Miss Satellite. They were being judged by JOHN PARCELL, GEORGE PRICE, BOB PENNINGTON, GARY MARIANI and the previous year's queen, REJOHNA GIBSON. The pianist, LYNN WILLIAMS, pounded out a little tune on the eighty-nine (researchers, ETHEL WILSON, CAROL FERRELL, and CHARLES YOUNG, discovered a new key in space) while BETTY NORMAN, star of stage and screen, chatted with her directors BOB BIANCHI and RAMONA SKIDMORE. Industrialists, ROGER ECHOLS, JIM CALDWELL, VAUGHAN ROWAN, and CHARLES GRIGSBY sat around the table smoking fifty-cent cigars and making admiring glances at the cigarette girls, JEAN SHAMBLIN and BECKY BOARDMAN. Across the room JAMES SETTLE, JERRY TINSLEY, EUGENE WINTER and HANS WUERFEL, partners in the law firm of Settle, Tinsley, Winter, and Wuerfel, crammed quarter after quarter into the slot machines to no avail. Finally FIAUNA BROWN, a secretary at Caldwell's Real-Estate Company, put a coin in and it began to rain silver. The band led by JIM PEARSON and composed of TOM GLASS, JOE TOLLEY, CAROL ECHOLS, CHARLES HIGGINBOTHAM, TOM DENNY, PAT PERRIELLO, CHARLES ZIMMERMAN and JOHN FERRELL, played while CHRISTINA FAST sang "Escalator to the Space Station"--a little ditty written by four housewives on Earth, JOY BUTCHER, PAULA DUNCAN, LEWELLA PAINTER, and MARNA PAULEY.

Growing tired of this noisy chatter, I left the club, hailed a Taxi, driven by BOB ENGLE, and went back to my apartment. In the lobby I passed career women, DELORES HARRISON, JANET COLEMAN, JUDY HARLESS, and JUNE PARKER, going to the premiere of a new show starring LOIS SHARP and BILLIE SHILTZ and co-starring SHARON SMITH, KAREN PRIESTLY and JAMES RIFFLE. The switchboard operator JOYCE CLARK handed me a telegram from my boss TYRONE GREER which gave me strict orders to return home. Luckily, I acquired reservations on a late flight, and I began to pack immediately.

The bellhops JERRY GAMMON and JAMES TRIPLETT took my luggage down to the space port to have it checked while I rode in the hotel limousine driven by LARRY THOMPSON. Also in the limousine was KAY SOULSBY a census taker who informed me that while in Dunbar she stopped at our "ole Alma Mater" to find former classmates, FLORENCE RINICK, PAT WILLIAMS, SHIRLEY RHODES, JANET GRALEY, JOYCE SARGENT, and BETTY TAYLOR teaching the younger generation. After stopping at the reception desk to pick up my tickets from the clerk TERRY GAYNOR, I went to the waiting room until time to depart. Finally the station master, BEN HOOVER, announced my flight and I boarded the ship. Returning from an assignment on the same flight were fashion models, JEAN CLAYTON, BRENDA ROUSH, RENE JACKSON and LINDA PARSONS.

At last we were off and headed for the "good ole planet Earth." The pilot, TOM FRAZIER, radioed the home station of engine trouble and was advised by the flight engineer LARRY QUEEN, to land on the next planet. After a short delay, WOODY HALLEY and PAT BLIZZARD, the mechanics, repaired it and we were on our way again. The stewardesses CAROLYN STRICKLAND, SHARON SELBE, and LINDA BIAS prepared coffee and sandwiches while opera singers SHARON RHODES, JUDY NIPPS, and NANCY JONES practiced merrily in the next cabin. So we ate and drank to music all the way home, elated at having seen our classmates again and thankful that they had realized their dreams.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We,the Senior Football Players, do hereby will and bequeath to the Juniors a change in luck in the South Carleston game, since we haven't won a game in three years.

We, the Senior Cheerleaders, Billie Shiltz, Jean Clayton, and Sue Brogan, do hereby will and bequeath to the Sophomore Cheerleaders, B. J. Darnold, Dee Burdette, and Dottie Gore our chairs and megaphones that need painted.

We, the Senior members of thea Cappella choir, being of sore throats and overworked diaphragms, do hereby will our good humor and melodious, gorgeous, harmonious, and tremendous voices to the Junior members of the choir for their use next year.

We, Carol Echols, Joyce Pierce, and Donna Jackson being of decrepit bodies and ignorant minds in our last will and testimony hereby will to Mr. John F. Pierson all music that we have collected in the past years.

We, Bob Bianchi, Jim Caldwell, and Tom Frazier, will to Charley Coffman our common horse sense in hopes he will wise up.

I, James Duffield of no mind or body, will my title "Tarzan of the Backwaters" to Cuddy Cunningham.

We, the Senior members of the fifth period gym class of no grades, tricky teacher, and the ability to play for blood, do hereby will to the Seniors in next year's fifth period gym class our unwilling willful willpower to get along with the teacher and not get their grades slashed as we did.

I, Jean Nichols, being of no mind and short body will to Jessie Priddy my bottle of 1 inch a day grow wider pills.

I, Paul Hermansdorfer, of no mind and tangled feet will the title of "Tanglefoot IV" to Harry Bowen.

I, Shelia Carter of carbon smudged hands and broken fingernails, will my shot typewriter in typing to any unfortunate typing student next year.

I, Roger Echols of feeble mind and body, will to Maxie Trevillian my title of "Crazy Legs" in hopes that he will live up to it.

We, Karen Rouse and Nancy Jividen, will to Frank Wilson a box of No-Doz pills so he can stay awake in study hall next year.

I, Lois Sharp being of little body and Latin mind, will Doris Grigsby my Latin notes so her mind won't decay from such a dead language and to Elaine Monroe my tennis shoes so if she gets lost in the locker room the teacher can find her by the scent.

We, the Dunbar High School Band Syndicate, being of no mind and less talent, do will to the "chief" all the old music we have accumulated over the past four years.

I, Roberta Pitman of all mind and no body, will to my brother Bill my ability to get along with Mr. May.

I, Penny Pitzer of no mind and no body, will to Jeannie Irvin a pair of her gloves that I have had since the ninth grade.

I, Ann Thompson being under the influence of some unknown power, do hereby will to my fellow wrecked physical specimans, Doris Grigsby and Beatrice Wilson, a bottle of hot water and a silent dog whistle, with hopes.

We, Linda O'Daniel and Jeanine Pickens, do hereby will our unskilled technique in the chemistry laboratory to Max Trevillian and Betty Cardwell with the agreement that they will ruin as many experiments as we did.

We, Carrie Leighty and Judy Westfall, do hereby will and bequeath to Carolyn Brammer a small record so she won't forget the routines next year.

I, Mike Sims, will to Raymond Harris my worn-out girdle pads in hope that he gets more protection from them than I did.

I, Carolyn Rhodes of unsound mind and body, will to Betty Harper my book on How to Grow Taller.

I, Angela Gallion being of sound mind and memory, do hereby will and bequeath all the fun and pleasure of the past three years to Susan Noyes.

I, Sue McGraner being of weak mind and small body, do hereby will and bequeath to Danny Absten the notebook which I received last year with the hope that he will give it to another Mound School Alumnus.

We, the Secret Club of DHS, will our ability to not be made known to any club that wishes to try it.

ACTIVITIES

The annual staff, which is the 12-D homeroom, carries on its work with the aid and supervision of its sponsor and advisor, Mrs. Douglas.

ANNUAL STAFF

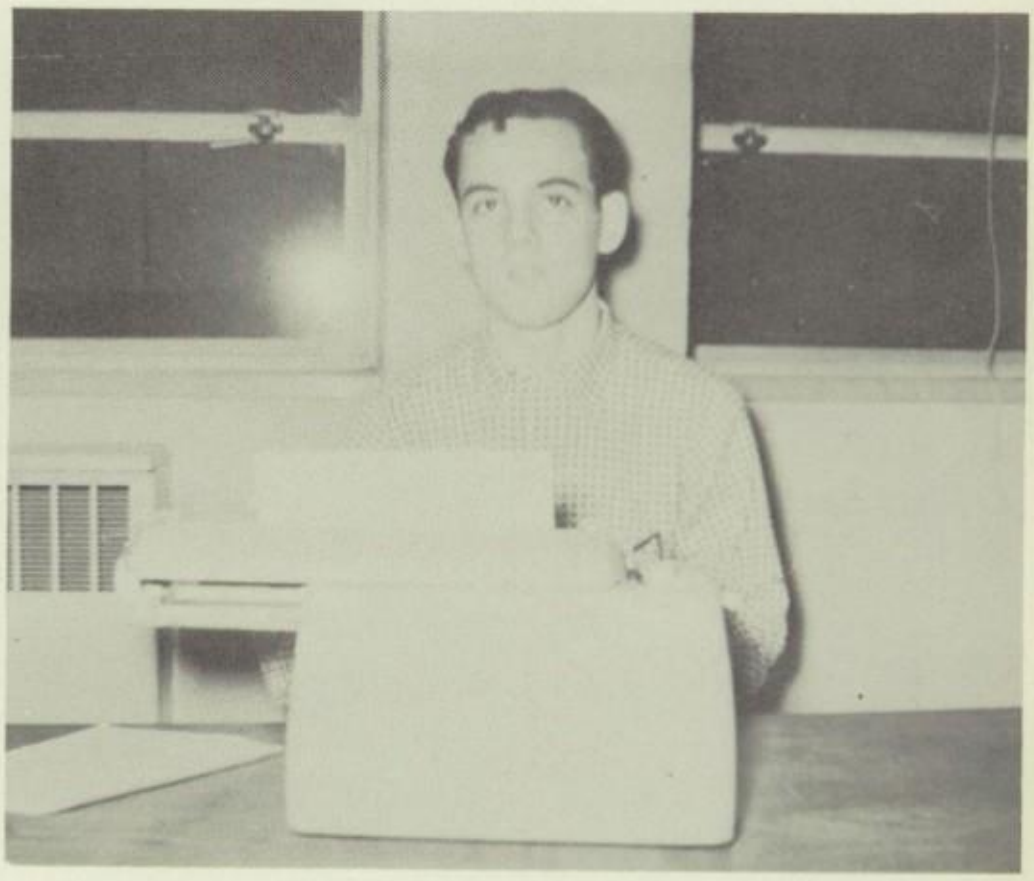
Linda O'Daniel and Many Spaniol, co-editors of The Bul'dog.

To create a larger and more interesting annual, was the goal set by the 1961 annual staff. Such projects as a car wash, a special assembly to arouse interest, and the Snow Festival Dance at Christmastime, were engaged in to raise the money needed.

Joe Carter, editor of the Kennel



The Kennel is the student newspaper at Dunbar High School. It is a mimeographed paper, published by the students of the journalism class, under the direction of Mrs. Howes. Every member of the journalism department plays an important role in the publishing of the paper.

Besides providing the students with information and entertainment, the Kennel provides future journalists the opportunity to learn first-hand the jobs of reporting and editing.

The Kennel, being a mimeographed paper, must be assembled each week by staff members before distribution. Four students shown assembling the paper are left to right: Joe Williams, Diane Carney, Joe Carter, and John Ferrell.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Christine Langfitt, President
John Sayre, Vice-President

The Dunbar High School Student Council is a representative group of students chosen by the home rooms and each class. The Student Council is the means of student participation in our school and an organization for improvement in all phases of the school life of the students.

Some of the Student Council's projects during the past school year were the sponsoring of a dance to welcome new students, help in the activities preceding the Homecoming Game, the organization of a canned food drive for Christmas distribution, the purchase of a fifty star United States flag, and the installation of a school answering service.

The Student Council does not stand alone but depends greatly upon the support of the student body and the faculty.

BAND

The Dunbar High School Band was originated in 1940 and was under the direction of Harry W. Hoffman. It grew to an all-time large of 88 in 1954 under the direction of Mr. John F. Pierson. The size of our band dropped this past year to 45 members, but the quality of its playing seemed to increase as much as its size decreased. Our band made a nice showing at the "Kanawha Valley Majorette Festival" this year when Jeannie Irvin walked off with the title of "Miss Kanawha Valley Majorette of 1960".

SPORTS

VARSITY

The 1960 Dunbar High School Bulldog football team had a heart-breaking season. They opened the season with a 6-0 decision over Clendenin on a muddy field. Next the Bulldogs lost to East Bank 7-6 in the closest game of East Bank's unbeaten season. The third game was a 27-13 victory over Sissonville in an excitingly fought contest. The next game was lost to St. Albans 7-6 as the boys were plagued with fumbles. The Bulldogs became the first team to score against Nitro, but lost to the undefeated team 34-6 after a tight first half. The Charleston team beat the Bulldogs on a last minute score 20-12. Dunbar defeated a determined Poca team 32-13. Because four Bulldog players were injured during the game, Barboursville swamped DHS 34-12. Our season was closed with the sad taste of defeat by South Charleston 25-20, in a battle for the Lion's Trophy. We are proud of the determination our boys showed on the field at all times.

BASKETBALL

The 1960-61 Bulldog basketball team played an unpredictable brand of ball. At mid-season our school had a 6-9 overall record and a 5-7 conference standing. At times Dunbar High School played great ball, almost defeating several of the better teams in the state.

Four players averaged double figures at mid-season.

We are proud of the way the Bulldogs represented us in the Kanawha Valley Conference, which is the strongest conference in the state.

Charles Caldwell finishes third in State Half-Mile

The 1960 Bulldog track team represented Dunbar High School well. After winning the state championship for the three previous years, the Bulldogs supposedly were out of the picture for a while. Through hard work and desire, our team finished in a respectable fourth place in the state meet after winning the Chemical Valley Conference meet.

Our team was paced by hurdlers Larry Stroble and Hamilton Lipscomb, distance runner Charlie Caldwell, and middle distance runners Mark Cardwell and Mike Barger. Other Senior lettermen were Don Miller, Bill Conard, and Benny Perkins.

You are such a lovely person. I have enjoyed your friendship for two years and I hope we will always remain good friends. Your charming personality, attractive self, high integrity, self-control, and high standards will allow you to reach great heights. I envy your determination. With your ability to get along and lovely smile, you will never be alone. I wish you success in all that you may attempt. May all your children have wealthy parents.
